Bello[®] FACE CREAM

Fair complexion with natural break through

- Bello Face Cream is prepared with 7 authentic herbs to improve glossy and fair complexion.
- In our ancient scriptures, the scientist-saints have referred to many formulations with herbs. Syndy Pharma, which has 80 years of practical experience in Ayurvedic preparations has picked the herbs from the ancient scriptures, conducted fruitful research and developed the new formula for face cream Bello Face Cream.
- Due to blocking of sweat glands by the dust particles skin loses its glossy complexion and becomes withered. In winter, due to exposure to cold and fog, complexion of the skin becomes dull and fissures will occur. Itching sensation is caused by dry skin. To alleviate this problem some antiseptics and anti-fungal treatment is imperative, and Bello Face Cream provides exactly this treatment by facilitating proper blood circulation into the inner layer of the skin.
- Protect the skin from sun burns.
- Effectively wipe out red or white or black darkling effects of sunlight spots and pimples.
- Completely safe, since it is prepared with purely herbs.
- Doesn't produce itching sensation during or after treatment.
- As per Ayurveda Neem is one of the most powerful detoxifier. Neem is often used to maintain healthy skin.
- Herbs like Manjista, Sandalwood, Tulasi, Neem and Kumari act as anti-fungal agents. Bello Face Cream, which has these herbs wipes out the red, white and black spots, pimples and sunburns. The soothing property positively effects glossy and fair complexion.
- The natural dyes Manjista, Red Sandalwood are treasured in Bello Face Cream, which improves the colour and complexion of the skin.
- With Sandalwood and Kumari Bello Face Cream protects the skin from ultraviolet rays thereby preventing the darkening of the skin.
- Regular use of Bello Face Cream improve complexion to the face.

Each gram of cream prepared with 5.3% w/v. of the following herbal extracts:

Aloe barbadensis leaves (Kumari), Santalum album wood (Srigandha, Sandal wood), Ocimum sanctum leaves (Tulasi), Rubia cordifolia stem (Manjista), Toddalia asiatica bark (Kanchanara), Azadirachta indica bark (Nemba, Neem) in a perfumed Cream base q.s. No colour is added.

Bello[®] ANTI DANDRUFF GEL

Ultimate remedy for Dandruff & Alopecia.

100% Traditional Ayurvedic preparation.
No side-effects.
No hair fall.

Dandruff (Pityriasis capitis) is associated with fungal infection caused on scalp. Due to this infection skin will be flaked and their will be rapid hair fall. Normally fungal infections are deeply rooted into the skin. At present only shampoos are in use, where we will not give time to penetrate into the skin as we wash within few minutes. Hence shampoos are not that effective in controlling dandruff. To circumvent this problem prolonged duration of application of drug is necessary, which is possible only with Bello Anti Dandruff Gel.

Alopecia areata caused by immune system abnormality. Auto-immunity is the case where immune system cells attack healthy tissues, which means that in alopecia areata, the immune cells attack the hair follicles and the growth formation of hair is disrupted. The ingredients in Bello Anti Dandruff Gel rejuvenate the hair follicles and regenerate the hair.

Bello Anti Dandruff Gel is in the form of special jelly penetrates into the skin quickly gives fast results and moisturize skin and increases the softness of the skin which prevents rapid hair loss and hair fall.
